"We are delighted with the continued strong response to our international bond issuances" stated Martin Nemecek, CEO and Managing Director of CPI PROPERTY GROUP. "We were able to price the increase of the notes at a favourable yield of 2.072%, which is below the yield achieved in our initial placement. Proceeds of our initial bond issue were used entirely to refinance debt, and this additional financing will help us to further lower our cost of funding and enhance our capital structure. We will continue to engage with international investors in the future and greatly appreciate their support for our credit story."

Deutsche Bank served as lead manager on the transaction. The Company was advised by Baker & McKenzie LLP and Deutsche Bank was advised by Allen & Overy LLP.
